Make an ‘apples to apples’ comparison on ad pricing by breaking down actual costs per ad, per magazine. You’ll need the postal receipt to verify the number of mailed publications.

Simply divide the cost of your ad by the number of mailed pieces to see cost per piece.

Here’s an example: $400.00 (ad rate) divided by 20,000 (actual circulation) = $.02

Your cost: two cents per piece
